ABOUT ME

I'm a passionate software developer, professional trainer, entrepreneur and occasional writer with a solid background in creating web applications. Since my childhood, I was attracted to the inner workings of gadgets and electronics, it inspired me to know how devices work.

I currently attend a Bachelor's degree in Computer Engineering in Luanda, Angola, and dedicate a good part of my time to my passion for programming, my ventures with Quick and Safe Shopping and writing articles in the best community of writers Artigo Semanal.
